revolutionize business, and yet that very machine will amount to nothing for the benefit of the inventor or the business world if it is kept in the garret and the owner walts for someone to discover its location, its merits and its value. The only thing for that inventor to do for the disposal of his product is to go to the newspaper and tell it to the world. He has got something which others are seeking and which he wants to sell. What he needs to put him in touch with the inter-

FOR A HOLY WAR Appeal to Ottoman Soldiers Issued By Sheik Ul Islam.

Constantinople, Nov. 8 .- The Shelk Ul Islam today insued the following appeal for a holy war in a manifesto addressed to the Ulemas and Hodjas: "With a view to exciting and en-couraging the soldlers of the enemies who surround us, their priests, cross in hand, are working in the ranks of the army. It is not fitting that our Ulemas should neglect the accomplishment of a similar duty.

"In order that the victory and glory promised by the Aimighty may be granted without delay to the Ottoman army it is necessary that the venerable Ulemas organize a Jihad. Such a holy war has, moreover, become an obligation if the condition of the Otto-man soldiers, who are all heroes, is to be strengthened. Ulemas who feel that they possesses the aptitude and strength to participate in this im-portant task are invited to present themselves immediately at the Shelk

Ill Islam, which will send those se-There have been rumors for a day or two that the ministry was unstable owing to its request for mediation by the European powers, but the news papers say this situation has way before the demand of the and of public opinion that the war be continued. The common danger seems to have united all parties. This is shown by the fervid outburst of the newspapers of all politurging a fight to a finish. The explanation of this new born unanimity may be found in the sug-gestion of one of the high government officials that even if it is possible to hold the lines at other defences are possible before the enemy can reach this city.

Every male who has reached the age of 19 years will be expected to be ready to perform his share in the duty of protecting the capital.
